

Sharon Burrill

Sharon Burrill has over 15 years of experience in both the classroom and in academic leadership positions, currently as Principal of Fenwick partner school St. Mary's of the Annunciation in Danvers, MA. Ms. Burrill brings to the position extensive experience in curriculum development, childhood education, and administration as well as business experience in the industries of technology and insurance.

Ms. Burrill's leadership positions in education include her tenure as the principal at Great Oak Elementary School in Danvers, the Elementary Curriculum Director for Danvers Public School, and Principal of Ivan G. Smith Elementary School in Danvers, MA. She also held managerial positions at Chubb Corporation in New Jersey and Boston, MA.

Ms. Burrill holds a Certificate of Advanced Graduate Study (CAGS) in Ed. Leadership from Salem State College, a Masters in Elementary Education from Lesley University, and a Bachelor of Arts from Mount Holyoke College.